On an approximately 20,000 sq. ft. lot, dotted with pine trees, we imagined this single home and its multiple boxes hung in this small forest.

Imagine this.

A couple. Madame is an artist and Monsieur is a teacher-researcher. They have three children, two girls and a boy. One is a college student in Austin and two are teenagers in high school.

Below ground: a garage for 4 cars.

Level 1: a swimming pool made of three containers of 40' with one vertical container of 40' for the staircase, technical equipment, and a diving board.

Also, two vertical containers of 53' for an elevator and the main staircase.

Level 2: two containers of 40' for the atelier for Madame and one container of 40' for the office for Monsieur.

Level 3: living room, dining room, kitchen, and its adjacent rooms (cellar, storage room, laundry room, etc.).

Level 4: three bedrooms for the children and two guest rooms (for 4 to 6 people).

Level 5: the master bedroom and its adjacent rooms.

All these spaces and levels are distributed vertically by two containers of 53' and horizontally by curved and covered passageways, closed on demand.
